PARISH OFFICE:
Monday to Friday from 9:00 a.m.—12:00 noon

BAPTISMS: Every third Sunday of the month at 12:00. Parents are expected to attend Pre-Baptismal Classes. Arrangements to be made at the Parish Office. Only practicing Catholics may act as Godparents.

MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. The common Policy for all the Dioceses of New Jersey requires a period of preparation for the sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the parish priest and attendance at either the Pre-Cana conferences or the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION: Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish..

Reflecting on God's Word

"Fear no one," this week's Gospel blithely reminds us (Matthew 10:26). Understood, but also easier said than done.

"Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (10:28). Okay, but we tend to grow attached to our bodies and hope to keep them a while longer.

"Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows" (10:31). But also one sparrow in the hand is worth two in the bush. We tend to go with what we have.

The fact is that most of us are not Jeremiah, who said what he believed even to the point of alienating just about everyone around him. To be Jeremiah can sometimes be just too intimidating. In short, we like our bodies as well as our souls, and so we let our fears get in the way of being the Christians we wish to be.

Nevertheless, every once in a while the Jeremiah strain in each of us does show itself. We speak up for what is right, realizing that if we do not, perhaps no one else will either. And so we say what must be said, maybe not shouting it from the rooftops but at least from the porch of the spirit in which our soul dwells. And after we've done so, miracle of miracles, we realize we are no longer afraid.

SOS

Three dots, three dashes, three dots: SOS, the international code signaling distress. By common understanding, we translate SOS into an abbreviation for the words, "save our souls." Ironically, the distress signal is for saving bodies, but there you have it. Today, Jesus talks about saving one's soul, one's very self.

This is God's great concern.

Remember--

Hunger does not take a vacation

A great poverty reigns in a country that allows taking the life of an unborn child - a child created in God's image, created to live and to love.

His or her life is not for destroying but for living, despite the selfishness of those who fear that they lack the means for feed or educate one more child.

- Mother Theresa

The Luminous Mysteries

St. John Paul II held an intense personal devotion to Mary. On October of 2002, the then Pope John Paul published his apostolic letter, "On the Most Holy Rosary," in which he proposed the Rosary as a rich source of spiritual nourishment and prayer. In this letter as well, he proposed the addition of the Luminous Mysteries. These are five significant events from the public ministry of Jesus; Baptism in the River Jordan, the Wedding at Cana, the Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, the Transfiguration and the Institution of the Eucharist. Now, when saying the rosary daily, the Luminous Mysteries are meditated upon on Thursdays.

Every day is a gift from God

A gentle reminder -----

As the summer months are upon us and vacations abound, do not forget to attend church wherever your travels take you. As your Guardian Angel watches over you, may your angel guide you and keep you and your family safe ---
