TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - The Lord said to Cyrus, his anointed, "I am the Lord, there is no other".

Second Reading - Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians: We thank God always for all of you.

Gospel - Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's.

Reflecting on God's Word

In a country that has a strong commitment to separation of church and state, it is noteworthy that our money, both bills and coins, is inscribed with the words "In God We Trust." The history of this motto and its relation to our currency goes back to the Civil War. Changing it has never gotten much support. It serves as a helpful reminder about where our true security lies.

In the Gospel, the Pharisees, along with some supporters of the Roman regime called Herodians, get into the act of trying to trap Jesus into taking a stand that would get him in trouble with either the Roman authorities or his own people. But Jesus, as much the fox as Herod was reputed to be, slips out of their net by noting that there can be different loyalties without a loss of priorities.

Jesus calls on them to produce the idolatrous coin that no devout Jew should carry, since it declared Caesar to be a god. Then he advises them to return to the emperor the coin that bears his image but to return to God what bears God's image, that is, themselves, made in the image of God.

A new order is revealed when we give God's image back to God by our words and deeds, showing God's image to others. When this happens, the motto "In God We Trust" becomes not merely stamped on paper or branded on copper, but encountered in living flesh and blood.

May her soul and the souls of all the departed,

Rest in Peace

"Pennies from Heaven"

In conjunction with National Vocations Awareness, the Somerville Columbiettes will be holding a "shake a can" after all masses, November 11 and 12. The "Pennies from Heaven" program is run by the NJ State Council of Columbiettes and 100% of all proceeds are distributed to seminarians and postulants in New Jersey to defray the cost of their studies. They are only asking for spare change to support those who have dedicated their lives to God.

In the wake of the recent hurricanes that devastated Puerto Rico and the Caribbean, Florida, Louisiana and Texas, and the deadly earthquakes in Mexico, Bishop Checchio has asked that the diocesan-wide Disaster Relief Collection, originally intended to close September 30, be extended to support the relief and recovery efforts in the affected communities. You may donate online at <http://diometuchen.org> or write a check made payable to "Diocese of Metuchen" with "Disaster Relief" in the memo line and mail to:

Disaster Relief Donation, Diocese of Metuchen
P.O. Box 191
Metuchen, NJ 08840-0191

Please give generously, as your means allow, to help our brothers and sisters who are most in need at this time.

The Diocese will accept donations through Thanksgiving Day, November 23. All monies collected will be used to assist victims of these recent natural disasters, working with local Catholic relief and recovery agencies in the affected regions. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all who have already contributed.
