Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 30, 2018

There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me
Mark 9:38-43

First Reading - Moses said, "Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets!"

Second Reading - Come now, you rich. The wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud.

Gospel - Whoever is not against us is for us.

NOT AGAINST US

Like Moses before him, Jesus corrects his disciples' misunderstanding of the gift of the Spirit. They saw people who were not of their company casting out demons and doing other works such as Jesus had done. Jesus points out that no one who does a good deed in his name can be opposed to him at the same time. He goes on to point out the importance of the "little ones," the poor, simple people, children, the meek ones who are not important in the world. It is to them that he was sent, not to the wealthy and the self-righteous. He underscores the importance of small works done in faith, as well as big works like driving out demons. "Anyone who gives you a cup of water . . . because you belong to Christ . . . will surely not lose his reward" (Mark 9:41). God builds the coming reign little by little in our actions, however small and unassuming, when they are done out of love of God and neighbor.

Please pray for the soul of

Gene Giardino

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God,

Rest in Peace.
