Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

The Baptism of our Lord January 13, 2019

He saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

— Titus 3:5

First Reading - Isaiah speaks of the Servant whom the Lord upholds; he shall bring forth justice to the nations.

Second Reading - Jesus was anointed by God with the Holy Spirit; he went out healing and doing good.

Gospel - A voice comes from heaven proclaiming Jesus as the beloved Son, with whom God is well pleased.

CALLED TO SERVE

For many weeks now, we have been celebrating the appearance of the divine presence in human form. As a child, he came to Mary and Joseph, was seen by the shepherds, and then by some wandering magi from the East. Today we celebrate another showing, later in time, to a group gathered at the Jordan River.

John hesitated to baptize Jesus, whom he recognized as "one mightier than I." But he did as Jesus asked, and the "Holy Spirit descended" and heaven's voice spoke to Jesus, "You are my beloved Son." Jesus was beginning his public life of teaching and service. Soon he would start calling others to join him.

Peter was one of the first to be called by Jesus. In today's second reading, he announces the heart of the message, "peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all." Peter was called, and you and I are called to spread that message and to serve God's word.

Please pray for the soul of
 Giuseppe Todaro

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God,
 Rest in Peace. Amen
