PARISH OFFICE HOURS:

Monday to Friday from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

BAPTISMS: Every third Sunday of the month at 12:00. Parents are expected to attend Pre-Baptismal Classes. Arrangements to be made at the Parish Office. Only practicing Catholics may act as Godparents.

MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. The common Policy for all the Dioceses of New Jersey requires a period of preparation for the sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the parish priest and attendance at either the Pre-Cana conferences or the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish..

The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 3, 2019

*Faith, hope, and love remain, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.*

— 1 Corinthians 13:13

First Reading - I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

Second Reading - If I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

Gospel - No prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown.

Reflection

Prophets are people who see deeply. Israel's prophets are uniquely possessed of God's vision for the world. The first reading tells of the call of the prophet Jeremiah, who is in many ways like Jesus. Both have a difficult calling or mission; both are treated harshly by their contemporaries; both carry within themselves a firm and abiding sense of God's power and protection. One could easily read the first reading and replace the name "Jeremiah" with "Jesus," keeping in mind that Jesus is a prophet and more than a prophet.

The second reading gives us some insight into the source of the power of God's people. Sandwiched between the two stories of the prophetic vocation, we read a passage that is among the most revered in all the Scriptures. Here, Paul sings of the virtue of love, the kind that Jeremiah and Jesus possessed--or that possessed and anchored Jeremiah and Jesus.

Paul is sure that we, too, are capable of this kind of steadfast, inexhaustible love that outlasts prophecy, great talent and skill, even great acts of courage.

The God who is author of this love is the same God who is Jeremiah's strength, the same God whom Jesus proclaims as a saving God.

Blessing of Throats:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr,

May God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Pope's Universal Intention: Human Trafficking
For a generous welcome of the victims of human trafficking, of enforced prostitution, and of violence.

The annual drive to support our Diocesan newspaper, the Catholic Spirit, is taking place during the month of February, National Catholic Press Month. Please support their good work by using the envelope in your packet. Any amount you contribute will show your support for the ministry of the Catholic Spirit and will be greatly appreciated. Please remember to take home a copy of the paper - it has a special role to playing your life as a practicing Catholic.

Congratulations and Blessings to the family of

George Dominic Daus

Who was Baptized on January 27, 2019

May our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ guide and protect him all the days of his life.

Congratulations and God's blessings to

Jozef and Emilia Szewczyk

On their 50th Wedding Anniversary

Wishing you many more years of happiness
