PARISH OFFICE HOURS:

Monday to Friday from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

BAPTISMS: Every third Sunday of the month at 12:00. Parents are expected to attend Pre-Baptismal Classes. Arrangements to be made at the Parish Office. Only practicing Catholics may act as Godparents.

MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. The common Policy for all the Dioceses of New Jersey requires a period of preparation for the sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the parish priest and attendance at either the Pre-Cana conferences or the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish..

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

— Galatians 6:14

First Reading - As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you.

Second Reading - May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel - Jesus sends out the seventy-two.

Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends seventy-two disciples out two by two. Where they will first go, he will follow. This is the opposite of what we usually think of when we think of disciples. The teacher normally goes first and the disciples follow. This is the order of missionary work—to continue the work the master has set out for them. But not in today's reading. Today, the disciples prepare the way for the master, who will come later.

Their own preparation is brief and to the point. They will go as sheep among wolves. That in itself seems to be a heart-stopper. Given this caution, the disciples might be expected to ask what defense they have. None, apparently. They are not to visit the unsuspecting population with messages and warnings. They are not to go well armed with thought-out arguments or skills of oratory and debate. They are to move about the countryside empty-handed and barefoot. They are to carry no supplies. They are to go as people expecting to be received. They are to knock on a door, any door. They are to wish the householder peace, shalom, God's healing salvation. They are to share in the hospitality offered them—no more, no less.

This, Jesus seems to imply, is the setting in which miracles can happen. The house of peace and generosity of spirit is precisely the place of God's saving presence. It hasn't to do with fine foods, aged wine, or a well-lit and warm room. It has to do with generosity of spirit and vulnerability.

Pope's Universal Intention: The Integrity of Justice
That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Visits our families

AWAKENING YEAR

PERSONAL CONSECRATION OPPORTUNITY

Want to grow in holiness, but are too busy? Set aside just 15 minutes a day for nine days during this Awakening Year to deepen your faith and make a consecration on a personal level to Jesus through Our Lady of Guadalupe. Read, reflect and pray daily with the story of Our Lady and St. Juan Diego. On the ninth day, you are invited to pray the personal consecration prayer, committing yourself to be an active Catholic and sharing your Catholic faith with others. This consecration is easy to fit in your schedule! Just pick the nine days to do this individually or get a small group together!

Everyone received Personal Consecration Booklet on Easter Sunday. If you did not receive one, they are still available in the back vestibule by the elevator, in the rear of the church and in the office.

To find out more about this personal consecration and to access the resource, go to www.lightingheartsonfire.org , click on prayers, select Personal Consecration and begin today!
