Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 4, 2019

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

First Reading - Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!

Second Reading - You too will appear with Christ your life in glory.

Gospel - For though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.

USING OUR TIME WISELY

A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won't waste a single one. We wouldn't feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today's readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone.

Happy Birthday Fr. John !

May the Lord shower you with many blessings on your special day, and may God be with you each and every step along life's journey ~

Pope's Universal Intention:

That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly 'schools of true human growth.'

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein)

Virgin and Martyr, born in 1891 in Breslau, Poland, was the youngest child of a large Jewish family. Eventually she became interested in the Catholic Faith, and in 1922, she was baptized at the Cathedral Church in Cologne, Germany. Because of the ramifications of politics in Germany, Edith, whose name in religion was Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, was sent to the Carmel at Echt, Holland. When the Nazis conquered Holland, Teresa was arrested, and, with her sister Rose, was sent to the concentration camp at Auschwitz, where she died in the gas chambers in 1942 at the age of fifty-one. In 1987, she was beatified in the large outdoor soccer stadium in Cologne by Pope John Paul II;
then canonized in October 11, 1998.
