Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Twenty - Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 29, 2019

First Reading - Woe to the complacent, stretched comfortably on their couches!

Second Reading - Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.

Gospel - There was a rich man who dined sumptuously each day. Lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus .

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of the Rev. Monsignor William Haughney.

Fr. Haughney was ordained to the priesthood May 31, 1947. He was a Parochial Vicar at the Cathedral of St. Francis, Metuchen. He then served as Pastor of St. Joseph Church in North Plainfield, from 1975-1983; then as Pastor of Our Lady of Mount Virgin Church, Middlesex, from 1983-1996. He retired in 1996 but served as Administrator at Nativity of Our Lord in Monroe until 2002.

The Mass Book for 2020 is now open

Please remember that each family may order
