Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

*The Lord lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.
— Psalm 145:14*

First Reading - Lord, you love all things that exist.

Second Reading - May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him.

Gospel - Today salvation has come to the tax collector Zacchaeus' house.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Zacchaeus was chief tax collector, a wealthy man, and short. Because of the crowd Jesus attracted and because of his height, Zacchaeus had to climb a tree. Up a tree would have been the safest location for a tax collector because they collaborated with the Roman occupiers and became rich to the detriment of their own people.

What makes this story so appealing is the joy that both Jesus and Zacchaeus show in meeting each other. "Come down quickly," Jesus says, "for today I must stay at your house." Zacchaeus drops quickly and receives Jesus with joy. The crowd, however, does not share in this joy. They grumble about a prophet eating with a sinner! But Zacchaeus holds his ground, saying that if--notice the "if"--he has defrauded any one, his will make amends four-fold, keeping the strictest restitution demanded by law. Jesus then proclaims, "Today salvation has come to this house," adding that this is why he came in the first place, "to seek and save what is lost."

Sometimes we can find ourselves "up a tree" even in our relationship with God. Remember Zacchaeus. Jesus brought him down safely and restored him to the community. This is why he still comes into our lives: to bring salvation to our own house.

CANONIZED APRIL 27, 2014

POPE SAINT JOHN PAUL II

Champion of Priestly Vocations & Reformer of Seminaries

"The world looks to the priest because it looks to Jesus! No one can see Christ; but everyone sees the priest, and through him they wish to catch a glimpse of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur and dignity of the priest."

"Pray, therefore, to the Lord of the harvest, that he send harvesters into his harvest... Considering that the Eucharist in the greatest gift our Lord gives to his Church, we must ask for priests, since the priesthood is a gift for the Church. We must pray insistently for this gift. We must ask for it on our knees."
