Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time January 31, 2021

*Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord who made us.
— Psalm 95:6*

First Reading - Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you".

Second Reading - Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.

Gospel - The people were astonished at Jesus' teaching; he taught them as one having authority.

WHOSE AUTHORITY ??

Many door-to-door salesmen have good intentions. They want to convert you to the "truth"-as they see it. They believe the Bible is the sole authority for the Christian faith. Some are taught that Catholics are prohibited from reading the Bible. Little do they realize that we hear them proclaimed every time we celebrate Mass. In today's readings, Jesus and Moses are recognized as speaking and acting with the authority of God. Both Jesus and Moses acted as a bridge between the people and God. For us the scriptures are a bridge for God's truth, but so are the sacraments and the experience of the Church- what we call Tradition. It is part of our responsibility as disciples to listen attentively at Mass, to read scripture for ourselves and to learn more about the Bible through reading, studying and learning with others.

The second Saturday of the month February 13, 2021 at 12 noon ROSARY

for the conversion of our nation
