*Jesus spoke to them
"Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid"*

First Reading - After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a "tiny whispering sound."

Second Reading - Paul is deeply pained because the Jews - in spite of everything that has been given to them - have rejected Christ.

Gospel - Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, "Lord save me!" Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.

Reflection

Miracles attract attention and they are signs of something. But, they are often ambiguous. It is commonly noted that seeing is believing. John the Evangelist and apostle calls Jesus' miracles signs of God's active presence among us.

What are we to make of today's Gospel? What is it teaching us? The Church--a small boat tossed about by the storm at sea. Is a picture that helped the early Church. The vision of Jesus walking on water inspired fear and awe. Jesus simply challenges Peter by issuing the command: "Come!" It is he who fixes his eyes on the one who summoned him. And it is Peter who falters. But more importantly, it is Peter who recovers by grasping the hand of the One who reaches out to him.

In the strength of Christ, the Church can stand against the sinful forces of the world. The Church will falter when its faith falters. It will fail when it doubts the presence of its Lord. It will experience the poise and calmness of soul that comes with firm faith in the presence of Jesus Christ in its midst.

THE LESSONS OF THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

We were never meant to fear death. It was never God's intention that we be afraid to die. This fear comes from a lack of trust in God, like the lack of trust that our first parents experienced. Yet, just as we turn to Our Blessed Mother as an example of how to live, we can also look to her on how to die, because it is precisely how she lived that teaches us how to die.

Tradition tells us that Mary was assumed into Heaven body and soul at the end of her earthly life. In moving from life on Earth to eternal life in Heaven, Mary's transition is described as "falling asleep." And that is exactly how God intended earthly death to be for us: a gentle, peaceful falling asleep. What makes the difference between a fearful death and a holy, peaceful death is a total trust in God.

Mary had the grace of a perfect trust in God throughout her life, as we see in the Annunciation, when she responds generously to the angel's message, saying, "Be it done unto me according to your word!" That perfect trust in God is a grace that Mary had from the moment she was conceived without sin. And for all of us, far from immaculate like our Heavenly Mother, this perfect trust in God is received each time we are encouraged by His Word, strengthened by the Eucharist, and healed in Confession. In these real, yet veiled encounters with Our Lord, we repeat again and again: "Jesus, I trust in You." And as we get better at living Mary's words, "May it be done to me according to your word," death transforms from a fear into an anticipation for the day when we will wake up in the arms of Jesus and see Him face to face.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
