Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas addressed many people, a large crowds gathered to hear them. Some of the Jews became jealous, and argued with whatever Paul said. But Paul and Barnabas continued preaching their message of salvation and everlasting life, until they were eventually forced to leave the town.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

John saw a vision of many people surrounding a throne and the Lamb. One of the elders told him these were the people who had survived great periods of trial, but maintained strong faith in God. Now they would receive eternal protection and comfort from God as reward for their loyalty.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus states that his sheep know his voice and follow him, and will receive eternal life. Jesus also says that no one can snatch his followers away, because God is greater than anyone who might try, and Jesus is one

God our Father,

*You made each of us to use our gifts
in the Body of Christ.*

We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to the priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will.

*Send workers into Your great harvest
so that the Gospel is preached,
the poor are served with love,
the suffering are comforted,*

*and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen*

PILGRIMS OF HOPE:

Journeying Together in Faith, Hope and Charity

While serving at the altar and preaching are their most visible roles, our permanent deacons do so much more. To name just a few ways: they are the sign of Christ the Servant among us, they are baptizing infants, presiding at wake services, teaching faith formation classes, serving meals to the poor and bringing the Eucharist to the sick. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeals helps defray tuition costs for the formation and continuing education of our permanent deacons.

Our Lady of Fatima

This feast commemorates the first of six appearances of the Blessed Virgin Mary to three Portuguese shepherd children in 1917. Mary exhorted them: "Pray, pray very much. Make sacrifice for sinners. Many souls go to hell, because no one is willing to help them with sacrifice." On her third appearance, she showed the children a vision of the state of eternal pain and despair and she asked that Russia be consecrated to her Immaculate Heart. "In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph," she reassured the children. On October 31, 1942, Pope Pius XII consecrated "the whole world torn by bitter strife" to the Immaculate Heart.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who
trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.*
